

Primaterra

-- Home Page - Plants - Wild flowers - Family Violaceae --

Family Violaceae

Viola odorata L.

Sweet Violet

María Andrés

Mis en ligne le Wednesday 2 March 2005

Viola odorata L.

Commun name: Sweet Violet.

Blooming: from February to May.

Size: 7-15 cm.

Plante type: perennial.

Habitat: woods, hedgebanks.

Distribution: throughout Europe, except extreme N.

Description

To know more about this plant, you can read the the french version.

(All pictures taken on february 2005 in The Gulf of Morbihan, by María A. Andrés)